About the Pittsburgh Emergency Medicine Foundation

The Pittsburgh Emergency Medicine Foundation is an autonomous charitable foundation formed to foster the academic and research programs of the University of Pittsburgh Residency in Emergency Medicine and the Center for Emergency Medicine of Western Pennsylvania, Inc. (CEM) The foundation is governed by a Board of Directors whose Chairperson and officers are elected by the Board. The foundation is committed to providing financial support for research and educational endeavors in the field of emergency medicine. Through these efforts, the Foundation hopes to increase awareness and interest in the field of emergency medicine education and research thereby contributing to the improvement of care of patients in the Emergency Department and the community.

The goals of the Foundation include:

- To conduct and encourage basic and clinical research in emergency medical care and related fields that will enhance knowledge and improve emergency medical care and its delivery;
- To provide sponsor and promote education and training for residents, medical students, fellows, faculty members, practicing physicians, paramedical personnel and the lay public; and
- To act as a support group for the research and educational activities of residents and fellows of the University of Pittsburgh Residency in Emergency Medicine and students enrolled in paramedical programs at the Center for Emergency Medicine of Western Pennsylvania, Inc.

Terms for the Scholarship

The Scholarship Committee may grant a total of eight (8) scholarships as determined by the Scholarship Committee. The selection of students to receive the scholarship grants shall be made by the committee without regard to race, religion, sexual orientation, or their political perspectives. The Committee will only award scholarships to those applicants who are enrolled in the Center for Emergency Medicine of Western Pennsylvania programs.

The level of scholarships available to be awarded are as follows:

- Four - $1,000 scholarships awarded for the Paramedic program
- Four - $250 scholarships awarded for the EMT program

The Committee shall require, prior to the disbursement of any scholarship, proof that the scholarship recipient is enrolled as a student in the CEM program. All scholarship grants shall be paid only to the education institution (CEM) and not directly to the recipient. The scholarship will be used to reduce the tuition bill for the recipient and will be paid one half at the beginning of the program and the remaining one half at the completion of the program.
